Dear,

Quite surprisingly, we decided to hold a show with our half young gallery.

My gallery is now 47 years old... We need to remain in focus, and little by little, we introduced new artists. Let me say that after your 'yes' we feel would a bit younger and happy... The point for a gallery, as for every other structure, is to remain inside the core of the situation. Thinking about this exhibition, I realize that my young artists depict quite an extraordinary family of Image-makers. Well, let's say that we are proud of such a situation and intend to celebrate it. Would you be happy to be part of this celebration?

Dear Massimo,

Thanks for your email.

True yesterday was first day of cold, we had a nice time playing outside in the cold.

Yes, I will be happy to take part in the show, the shoes work will fit well and if I come up with new works.

Let me know if you need anything else!

Hugs from Berlin,

Ariel.

Dear Massimo,

please apologize for my late reply, they starting to be customary and unfortunately, predictable. Am very happy to participate in this adventure. Count on me for whatever you and the gallery want/need. 47 years running the gallery shows a level of commitment, resilience, and love for art that is extraordinary. Your example is a weapon for all of us that live a life in the arts.

Un fuerte abrazo

Armando

Da: Haris Epaminonda

Dear Massimo,

As always I love receiving emails from you, they make my day! They read like haiku's but Massimo style.

Of course I am in, sounds great! Great list of new and old additions :)

Sending hugs from here

Haris
